

SAMPLE THEMES

M-Vision Travel suggests themes that highlights the Malaysian experience. These are some samples.

THEME – COLONIAL DAYS

Relive history or go back in time. Follow the trail of Somerset Maugham. This is thrilling trip with a sense of suspense and adventure prevailing. Incorporating team and loyalty-building exercises, fun theme parties with a royal treatment and sleuthing activities would have the participant coming back for more.

THEME – NATURE ADVENTURE

A soft adventure with nature, whether tracking, white-water rafting or stalking animals from a hide can bring out the natural instinct in the participant. A village stay or visit, learning about unique flora, fauna and wildlife and being able to observe and making your own herbal medicine is liberating. A wellness and spa experience could be incorporated.

THEME – SPORTING SPIRITS

Sporting spirits take advantage of International or local Sporting events that happens to be held at a specific time in Malaysia eg. The Formula One races. Participate and win is the operative word in these programmes.

SAMPLES OF THEME PARTIES

You can enhance the occasion further with theme parties and gala dinners. We can think of a few that may add juice to your ideas.

BEACHY BEACHY

A highly charge atmosphere prevails as the sun sets on the horizon. Stretch of white sandy beach is transformed to golden colour right before your eyes. The night brings its own charm as the rising silver moon ushers in the Endless flow of drinks.

Guests in batik and sarongs await the grand entrance of the guest of honour Sitting on a high chair and carried by four pirates. Feel the excitement of the energizing lion dance as you savour the sumptuous cuisine served buffet style, specially prepared to wet the appetites of all our beach partiers’.

With colourful cocktails in your hands, dance the night away with live music from the “beach boys band” and DJ music.

EXOTIC FLOWERS NIGHT

Flowers, flowers everywhere. Orchids, roses, carnations, lilies and lots of other beautiful Malaysian flowers fill the atmosphere with colour, freshness and sweet aroma. You will be welcomed with garlands. So, make sure to come dressed in the best of your floral design attire.

A wide variety of Malaysian cuisines await you at the dinner table. Sing and dance the whole night. Have lots of fun.

BORNEO NIGHT

A thick curtain of millennia-years old rainforests stages the spectacular backdrop for celebration. Beneath the dense canopy of greenery, tribal warriors greet vigilant welcome. In a corner, your eyes catch sight of a poor soul, stewing in a large cauldron over large flames. The air is taut with danger as you inch your way into a large clearing, set for a night of ritualistic revelry.

A colourful figure on a high chair is slowly carried in amidst a troupe of headhunters. Suddenly, the Warrior King sets out a loud cry, “Kano Toku Moginum!” ‘Let the feasting begin!’ There is dancing and merriment, and a bountiful feast of authentic traditional specialties. You cannot believe your eyes.....the revelry is mesmerizing.

SHANGHAI CHINESE GAMBLING DEN

The smoky haze-filled atmosphere of a licentious Oriental gambling den permeates your senses as you step into the cavernous room. It's the seductive lure of Cheongsam-clad ladies, green velvet tables, a pair of dice, a deck of cards and Lady Luck.

You are dressed in your best, in your pocket is the rabbit's foot Grandma gave you. The cashiers hand you a stack of chips and bid you good fortune. The world is waiting, will you draw a pair of aces or roll your dice right!

Gaming tables line the room... in the far corner, a gastronomic feast of Eastern and Western specialties offer revivification for weary Kings and Queen of Gamblers. The mood is intense and exhilarating... the night has indeed begun!

BAZAAR NIGHT

The raucous calls of street side vendors mark the start of yet another lively bazaar! At the Entrance, charming maiden garland you with flowers. You browse among a cacophony of stalls plying all manner of goods. Something catches your keen eyes... a bargain perhaps?

Eat local favourites from rowdy hawker stalls as busy waiters in undershirts and sarongs plough back and forth with tray-loads of colourful drinks.

Music is a fiesta for the ears, from cultural dances to live band, to deejay music. It is a celebration of life as vivid and real-life as only Asia can be!

MALAYSIA CULTURAL EXTRAVANGANZA

A presentation of Malaysia's rich culture to enchant you. The Malays, Chinese, Indians, other ethnic groups and natives add to this unique feature of the country. You'll be entertained by talented local dancers and traditional musicians from these ethnic groups. Dances like Tarian endang (Malay dance), Ribbon Dance (Chinese) and the Baratanatium (Indian) will fascinate you.

Come dressed in traditional costumes like the Malay 'Baju Kurung', Chinese 'Samfu' or Indian 'Sari' or 'Dhoti'. During dinner you will be served with authentic Malay, Chinese and Indian food – a sumptuous array of dishes you can savour nowhere else. Delight in this extravagance. It will be a feast you will never forget.

SULTAN FOR A NIGHT

A reenactment of the glorious days of the Malay Sultanate (Kingdom) – an era of powerful Sultans (Kings), beautiful princess and brave warriors saw many battles fought and won. Dress in a 'Baju Melayu' or 'Baju Kurung' and watch the ancient Malay court dances, jestings and music. Be enchanted by the royal ceremonial costumes parade from all the states in Malaysia.

While you treat yourself to gourmet Malay cuisine made to satisfy the hunger of a Sultan, a magnificent display of 'silat', the Malay art of self-defence, will be displayed by skilled exponents. Enjoy this royal celebration, for you are a Sultan for a night!